ABSTRACT

The Leisure Reading Selection Guide is part of an effort by the Appalachian Adult Education Cetner to aid librarians and adult basic education personnel in the selection of materials for undereducated adults. It is a listing of those leisure reading materials most frequently used by adult learners in four Appalachian Adult Education Center projects demonstrating the coordination of services between public libraries and adult education programs. The list is arranged alphabetically by entry title, and each entry include name of author, physical format, readability level, suggested supplier, approximate unit cost, and a brief annotation. It is presented with the purpose of providing adult interest theme, low readability materials which adults can use and enjoy. (Author)

INTRODUCTION

The Leisure Reading Selection Guide is part of an effort by the Appalachian Adult Education Center to aid librarians and adult basic education personnel in the selection of materials for undereducated adults. It is a listing of those leisure reading materials most frequently used by adult learners in four AAEC projects demonstrating the coordination of services between public libraries and adult education programs.

The list is arranged alphabetically by entry title, and each entry includes name of author, physical format, readability level, suggested supplier, approximate unit cost, and a brief annotation.

It is presented with the purpose of providing adult interest theme, low readability materials which adults can use and enjoy.
